

What do I need to attend a Course

To attend one of our NZTA approved courses you must hold your Class 2 Learner Licence. To obtain a Class 2 Learners Licence you must have held a full current NZ Class 1 (Car) licence for a minimum of 6 months.

How do I get my Class 2 Learner Licence

You should study the Heavy Vehicle Road code. This can be purchased from a book store, borrowed from your local library or online via the NZTA website.

You will be given a computerised theory test. This will involve 35 questions a mixture of Class 2 and general road code questions.

Where can I book my Learner Licence test?

At your local driver licencing agency: AA or VTNZ

You must take with you:
Medical Certificate	Must be less than 60 days old (unless you have had one in the last 5 years for driver licencing & your health hasn't changed) If you need one we advise that you do not get this until just before you are ready to book in at your licencing agency
Proof of Identification	See NZTA Factsheet 20 for the acceptable ID required
